Hey, Yukihina! Give it an end, you should just forgive Masaomi already!

Tomorrow might bring a total mess or a new year, for all you know.

CODE:BREAKER

一致団結の異能者達!?

上条ダークヒーロー異能譚!!

This is how he was allowed to stay close to Fujiwara.

For Masaomi to be able to stay by Fujiwara as a Code: Breaker, he had no choice but to let go of his convictions and become a judge, so that he could watch over all Code Breakers.

After what happened on December 32nd, the four of us decided to dissolve Eden, but Fujiwara decided to revive it in this form of "EDEN" (*).

In my opinion, Masaomi forced himself to adhere to that "EDEN" as an act of deep repentance for what happened on December 32nd.

I don't do () it for the good of all mankind or for the good of the rare kinds.

I don't need words.

Because I believe in "Emperor"

(*) First "Eden" written with a kanji (meaning "utopia, ideal land, earthly paradise") but katakana for the second (= capital "EDEN" in English): this alone shows how, to Zed, the "Eden" today is not the same entity as the old one, at all.

() written in very small characters: not sure.

Wa...

I don't know. Anyway, I have to beat up this guy.

すたすた

Yuki, you were the closest person to this guy, you understand that, don't you?

Yuki!!! You...

Beware not to lose balance as you're in this lost form!

I don't object that, really...

This could bring chaos.

Ain't it good? He looks pretty!

And a guy in the first place!

...So, Masaomi Heike, you are now...

Now that he teams up with Bento, what can they do ...!?

平家参戦で状況に変化が!?

CODE:BREAKER

Teaming up with Bento, what's...

Number two ...

G...

You, what are your reasons, I don't get it!!!

BENTO -KUN !!!

What's that? It glitters?

You don't die from it, but when humans inhale a certain quantity, their life force... so sorry, it became liquid.

But facing a special ability user, even an insignificant quantity will be enough to substitute with the special abitlity user's blood, unfortunately.

And with "The Angels Blessing" (*), a lot of humans inhaled that!

It substitutes with special ability users' blood... For what purpose...

...When my blood is mixed with a special ability user's blood, only one thing can happen.

Li...

It's a lie.

Definitely not.

(*) Forgot how it was translated before, is the "mobile game "rare kinds" used a few chapters before, where people had to decide about the life or death of some prisonners.

See for your-self.

By my hand,

I create the nothing-ness (*).

(*) I know this was translated as "nullification" in previous translation, but I prefer the word "nothingness". Let's say one word focuses on the process itself ("nullification" = "being nullified") and the other on the consequence ("nothingness" = "pure emptyness"); given the story and such, I think "nothingness" is more correct? But it's just my opinion, maybe even the author would disagree.

Sto ...

What is he doing ...

What ...

STOP THAT !!!

Please bear with it...

You mustn't go, Oogami-kun.

Kk ...

Be careful, Heike!

Be... Bear with it, please, Oogami-kun. Just for a bit...

He turned sides for good?!

Heike, what are you...

Gwah!

Wha

That Bentou guy

Into the nothing-ness,

he is launching his own nothing-ness

Lo... Look!

Bu... But what of the impact?!

Gwah!

The nothingness is vanishing !!!

Wha..

No way Heike, you were all..

to launch nothingness into nothingness itself, causing a mutual annihilation.

What's that? The noth-ingness power is dropping?!

In order to get rid of all of the nothing-ness

Heike! What are you..

The nothingness annihilates neither the power of those using special abilities nor the rare kinds'

The one and only method is..

How many victims will fall in that goal.

Stop that joke!

I know that! Still

For this mutual annihilation to happen, it was necessary for the box to be opened, so that all of the nothingness would be left out. And whoever should open it.

On December 32nd.

But then, it would be impossible to see the real meaning of a "perpetual future", its peace and freedom

As soon as the nothingness would appear, someone would try to use it, at any cost, and try to rule the world

Just like Fujiwara.

As the nothingness was born, so was my own duty.

Thus, with my... with this hand, everything will take an end.

And when everything is over, it will be your own duty to judge me

If it goes on like this he will lose all of his strength as it is swallowed up in that Bentou Inui's nothingness is getting unstable?

Because such a rare kind's blood is necessary

As I thought, there can't be any substitute right?

I won't cause any more delay!

Sem

Masa
omu

Heike

"Emperor"

(*)

How much did I get my hands dirty.!

From this day onwards, I've been living into the darkness only so that I could bury the nothingness.

Is this really "justice" !?

"Emper-or", is this...

That day... We made the wrong choice.

(*) Too small and too blury for me to read "memories anyway of when Fujiwara was glad about or wondering about Heike's faithfullness towards him

Precious

Sincerely

precious.

For every one, there is nothing left to block their view.

I'm not worried anymore

Still

Let me be gloomy once again

I wanted to eat something together with Bentou-kun

Everything is for our "Eden" (*).

(*) The "reading version" next to this "Kanji Eden" says, for once, "Peace for everyone"

Precious

G...

They ...
The nothing-ness is ...
They did it!

The nothingness is...

Everything is vanishing!

Is it, really ... ?

Wha ...

That fool.....

Did you really think I wouldn't notice your plan?

Too bad, isn't it, Heike?

It doesn't stop. it can't be stopped!!! The end of the world is settled?!

never disap- pears ?!

What if the noth- ing- ness

Done with so-so translation skills and very poor editing skills... -apologies-

(at least it gives you a good reason to buy the actual volumes when they are released in your country, eh!)
